PROFILE

Hello there! My name is Barashkov Artemii. I am a person with a huge passion for Graphic Design & Photography, looking to gain professional experience and opportunities for growth and learning in the field of Graphic Design. I am currently studying at the Technological University of Cyprus. I've been working as a waiter since the age of 16, in some of the best restaurants, bars, and events in Cyprus. This has given me extensive experience in working under pressure, learning fast, and adapting quickly to the working environment, while delivering the best results possible.
